

Exhibitor Prospectus

OVERVIEW: SAC is in its 12th year, and Nashville, TN will host the conference on September 25-27, 2019. SAC serves the automotive manufacturing associations of seven states: AL, GA, KY, MS, TN, TX, and SC. It has grown in status over the years and is coming off its largest ever SAC in 2018 that had over 1,200 registered attendees and more than 200 booths.

PROJECTED FOR 2019: Planners are preparing for 1,200 attendees and more than 200 exhibit booths with special car displays and other exhibits that appeal to the automotive manufacturing industry. Attendee job titles include C-Level, Engineering, Plant Manager, Maintenance, Site Selection, HR Manager, and Purchasing among others.

EXHIBITORS RECEIVE:

- Exhibitors may purchase additional registrations for employees at the discounted rate of $185 per person.
- In addition to the above, all exhibitors and their registered representatives receive invitations to the special VIP Reception on Wednesday evening which is a Preview Party for the show and will feature a Purchasing Agent meet & greet. This invitation-only reception is in honor of our Sponsors and Exhibitors who make this conference possible.
- All exhibitors are entitled to receive the attendee list two weeks prior to the conference to facilitate meetings and introductions.

The 2018 Exhibitor List is available on the website to download for your review. The 2018 Attendee list may be obtained by contacting Lynsey Delane at the email address below. The floorplan is posted on the website and is subject to change. We will be assigning booth spaces in the months prior to the conference but will work with each exhibitor in the order they register (first-come, first-serve).

The SAC is a can't miss event for anyone who does business with the automotive industry in the South. Whether you attend, exhibit, sponsor, or do all three combined, marketing your company at the SAC is the best deal there is. Everyone you need to see is gathered in one place September 25-27 at Music City Center in Nashville, Tennessee.
